The pool at Lily Beach Resort & Spa at Huvahendhoo, Maldives

Luxe for less

Indulge your champagne tastes on a lemonade budget

With BA launching its first-ever flights from London to the Maldives in October (non-stop, thrice weekly) and the opening of Lily Beach Resort & Spa at Huvahendhoo, Maldives, sleeping by the coral reefs of the Indian Ocean suddenly looks affordable. A 25-minute seaplane hop from the capital Malé, Lily is the first five-star resort in the Maldives to offer an all-inclusive package – which means you won't get stung with a humungous food and bar bill on checking out.

Style: a combo of contemporary design and local architecture in wood and stone, surrounded by lush vegetation. Choose from water, beach or family villas.

A Deluxe Water Villa

Beach: think white sand and turquoise water, amazing dive sites, snorkelling safaris, sunset fishing and watersports.

Treats: the Tamara Spa's holistic therapies fall into five categories, such as Oxygen and Flow, comprising three treatments each, which can be enjoyed individually or as part of a ritual.

Menu: Indian and Chinese fusion cuisine at the à la carte Tamarind; all-day eats at Lily Maa – an open-sided restaurant with sand floors and lagoon views – or chill out at the Spirit bar. Seven nights, from £2,100 per person, based on two people sharing a Beach Villa including Platinum Plan, flights and transfers (01306 747 008; kuoni.co.uk).
